

OUR SACRAMENTO LETTER.

SACRAMENTO, March 5, 1895.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Since my last letter nothing of any great importance has taken place in this muddy water city by the law-makers, other than you have received by telegraphic service.

Today, however, things were very lively in both the Senate and Assembly, as a synopsis of their doings, which I now give to your many readers, will show.

After the Senate was called to order this morning and the usual prayer offered by the chaplain, Senator Martin of Placer county offered a motion that the Senate adjourn until 2 o'clock so that the members could attend the funeral of the late Catholic Bishop Manogue. Senator Earl of Alameda opposed the motion. Senator Hart of Sacramento proposed an amendment that when the Senate do adjourn that it do so out of respect to the memory of the dead Bishop. This amendment was accepted by Senator Martin. This brought Senator Seymour of San Bernardino to his feet. He made a motion that the whole matter be tabled and the motion was carried by a large vote. Senator Seymour said afterward to your correspondent that he would have made the same motion if it had been a Bishop of the Methodist or any other church and furthermore said: "I am not a member of the Catholic Church or the A. P. A., and I do not think that any church affairs should be introduced into any legislative matters."

The Republican Joint Caucus last night developed into a sort of inquest of the long-talked of "Lexow Committee." Judge Waymire urged the importance of the measure but few of his associates agreed with him and his proposition to name a committee to talk the matter over with the Governor was given no heed, and that was all the caucus amounted to. The general feeling is now that the subject will be dropped.

The following Assembly Bill introduced by Meads, speaks for itself:

"An act to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within two miles of any University having not less than 250 students in attendance. The people of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

"SECTION 1 It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to keep or expose for sale, or sell, or give, or permit others to take for consideration, directly or indirectly, any malt, spirituous, or other alcoholic liquors upon or within two miles of any university within the State of California, having an average attendance of not less than two hundred and fifty students.

SEC. 2. Any violation of section one of this Act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or both; the fine to be not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and the imprisonment to be not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, for each offense."

SEC. 3. This Act shall take effect immediately."

County Division—The Senate today defeated Senator Burke's amendment to the bill to create new counties, which provided that the commissioners loosing charge of the organization might refuse to create a new county if such proposed division would not benefit both the old and new counties.

Burke then had an amendment adopted providing that no county may be divided which has an area less than 500 square miles unless it has a city of 15,000 inhabitants within its boundaries. Other amendments were made and the bill was continued until 7:30 o'clock this Tuesday evening.

Cutter, of Yuba and Sutter, raised a row in the Assembly last night when he insinuated that the Engrossing Clerk had been juggling with his bill providing for the organization and government of drainage districts. The bill came up for third reading, but it was held up because it had not been engrossed. Cutter was wildly indignant. The Engrossing Clerk tried to explain, but someone headed him off by raising the point that no one but a member could address the House. Spencer, presiding, shouted for order, and nearly pounded a hole through the Speaker's desk with his gavel. He ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest anyone speaking without permission. Reid added to the uproar by yelling to the Speaker an inquiry as to whether the Assembly was or was not a bear garden. Altogether, it was a most disgraceful scene of disorder.

The result of all the turmoil was that Cutter was allowed to rush his bill along, and it was put on the third reading file for tonight.

AGAINST CHINESE.

A bill by Stansell is directed against Chinese fruit-packers, providing for the labeling and stamping of all boxes of fruit produced or handled by aliens when placed on the market in any form. Aliens who have declared their intentions of becoming citizens are exempted from the provisions of the law.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

The County Government bill was taken up as a special order, and nearly all the morning session was devoted to making minor amendments to its varied provisions.

The Senate bill providing for the payment of $275,000 back claims for Coyote scalps was killed in the Assembly by a vote of 35 to 33.

The Senate has adopted Phelps resolution accepting the painting of the late Governor Booth, tendered to the State by his wife.

It is stated that the case of Mose Gunst, the San Francisco Police Commissioner, will be appealed to the Supreme Court from the decision of Superior Judge Sanderson of San Francisco.

Trustee William Cary Jones of your city is here and is registered at the Golden Eagle.

Your correspondent will send you in a few days a bound copy of Berkeley's new charter, with his compliments.

S. S. Brownell of Oakland is also a visitor to the Capital City.

From all indications at the present writing the Legislature will adjourn sine die on the 16th instant.

Hereafter your correspondent will see that the GAZETTE has at least two letters a week from this muddy city.

Kindheartedness.

The quarterly report from the Home for the care and training of feeble minded children lies on our table. In its columns we notice the following paragraphs which show that our school children are kind hearted and that their teacher not only instructs them in learning but also in deeds of benevolence:

"Another contribution that afforded us a great deal of pleasure, and represented an enviable phase of human sympathy, came from the pupils of the third grade, Kellogg School, Berkeley, Miss S. T. French, teacher. One of our present number was formerly a classmate of these pupils, who desired to show in some way their interest in the child, and to remind him, pleasantly, that he had not been forgotten. The contribution consisted of a large box, containing books, pamphlets, illustrated papers, toys, games, etc.

"These gifts have been as gratifying as they could possibly be in any light to the children, for they convey the impression of the public confidence and deep sympathy for the work the management is doing, and evince an appreciation of every officer's labor in uplifting and enlightening these dull, unilluminated minds.

On account of being a candidate for an official position M. L. Hanscom has resigned from the Executive Committee of the Independent Taxpayers Party.

Messrs. Earl H. Webb and Victor Robertson have been selected to fill vacancies in the Executive Committee of the Independent Taxpayers' Party.

A suit has been commenced by the Commercial Bank of Berkeley against Pauline E. Stone on a note bearing 12 per cent interest.

Clinton Day and family left for Europe this morning on a six months trip. Mr. Rady will occupy their home while away.

A musical band paraded the streets last evening and awakened up many who were in the first hours of a night's rest.

The Berkeley Fruit store closed its branch at Dwight way and will carry on business at Center street as usual.

Professor William Carey Jones returned from Sacramento this morning.

Approved by the People.

The Senate yesterday, in recommending action to be taken by the Governor, with a view to have the National Government expend appropriations already made for the improvement of our rivers, should be highly commended, as it is a very important matter to California. The results will be beneficial to the State in more ways than one. It will increase avenues of transportation, make freights cheaper and disburse quite a large sum of money among the working class.

It is suggested that the station at the Oakland mole might well be beautified by potted plants, which could be secured probably from the park or from public spirited persons who own large grounds. If such a plan of decoration were found feasible it might be extended to the new union depot on this side of the bay. The Association considers that it is important to make favorable first impressions upon visitors, since those impressions are usually the most lasting—S. F. Call.

From Sacramento reports it appears that the Assembly was turned into a den. The speaker pro tem put his feet upon the desk, a cigar in his mouth and ruled every one out of order who tried to address him. Is anything wanting to make this body of men more disgraceful to the State?

Liberal allowances have been made by the Legislature for State and County Fairs. This may be all right for the counties but for the State fair it is all wrong. In the latter case the money is absolutely thrown away.

Mr. C. C. Harlin, of the Advocate staff, is confined to his room with an attack of la grippe. He lately met with an accident, turning his ankle, which prevented him from walking without the aid of a cane.

The publication of railroad time tables by the Call is a good stroke of policy. Although it is published without price good returns will come from it by additional sales of the paper.

The Constitutional convention for the purpose of having Utah admitted into the Union as a State met yesterday in Salt Lake and elected permanent officers.

W. B. Storey, a graduate of the State University, has been appointed engineer of the New Valley Railroad. A very important position.

Schaffer and Ives, the noted billiard players, are announced to arrive in San Francisco, April 16, 1895.

Major General O. O. Howard arrived in San Francisco yesterday. He will deliver lectures on the Coast on the civil war.

The Southern Pacific Company had two more stop-over suits decided against them in Oakland yesterday.

The public is anxiously waiting for the underground wire for propelling electric cars.

Mr. Sutton of Dwight way returned from New York yesterday.

The county division question has been knocked out in the Senate.

Chas. H. Spear went to Sacramento last evening.

Charles T. Kerns is laid up with la grippe.

Three Justices of the Peace in San Francisco are laid up with la grippe.

The Senate has concurred in the Assembly amendment to the cigarette bill.

Louis Strassman, a straw bondsman, got seven years in the State prison on a charge of perjury.

In the Assembly the bill prohibiting newspapers from publishing lottery advertisements was reported adversely.

A bill compelling the return of fare to street car passengers, when the cars had stopped ten minutes, has been reported favorably upon in the Assembly.

Indictments have been found by a San Francisco Grand Jury against parties owning houses and renting them for immoral purposes. This strikes at the foundation.

It has been discovered that Grace Benjamin, who was asphyxiated in a bath room at 406 Sutter street, San Francisco, was married to Simon Meyers, from whose room she had proceeded to take a bath. The marriage had been concealed for family reasons.

In Nantucket there are sixteen women to one man. Happy man!

Aphorism by a perfectly reckless belle—"Be flirtuous and you will be happy."

Professor King should have loaded his balloon with coal if he wanted it to go up.

Assistant sculptor wanted. One who is quick and correct at figures preferred.

"I am free to confess," as the thief remarked when he turned State's evidence.

"I'm always getting things mixed," as the man said who had hash set before him thirteen times a week.

Tight trousers are out of fashion. They always did have a slim chance, and latterly the wearer's legs have had to combine for support.

It was quite unnecessary for Henry of Navarre, according to Macaulay, to tell the French to charge for the golden lilies. Did he suppose they were going to give them away?

The report that the Chicago women wear carriage boots has been traced to St. Louis, and is, therefore, an exaggeration of the basal facts in the case.

Professor Huxley declares that the mouse is a harmless creature. This will be interesting news to the ladies, who always believed directly to the contrary.

STRANGERS SHOULD READ THIS.

THE GAZETTE believes in advertising, and in accordance with that belief intends to let all foreigners, (meaning everybody outside of Berkeley), know what advantages and inducements there are in the town for people to come among and abide with us. From time to time this kind of information has been given. As new faces are constantly hovering in the vicinity they may not have read the many facts printed. Another thing residents here may not have sent the paper containing these chronicles to all of their friends and would like to have another edition for that purpose.

We do not believe that a person lives within the town limits but what would like to have some friend come and live alongside of him. In order to get that friend here he must be able to show him that Berkeley is a little bit better place to reside in than where his friend is now living. This is a very easy matter to do as this University town is naturally ahead of any other place yet put on record, and we can prove it too, whether old Bill Jones is alive or not.

In the first place tell your friend about the large number of square inches of climate that we possess. That it always has on its holiday attire, both day and night. Let him know that the aforesaid climate is manufactured in nature's own laboratory, and not by any national forecaster, however good a job he may try to do at all times. Don't forget the extensive water front, by which our transportation facilities are equal to any and surpassed by none. Right here mention our railroad facilities, but don't brag on that much at present, but say what it will be after the San Joaquin Valley Railroad will be finished, for the building of which there are millions of dollars on paper, and hundreds of thousands in the Bank of California, all of which is marked C. O. D. Mention the the cheap rate for which real estate can be purchased, both for building and manufacturing purposes, at the time say that for these purposes the location for each branch is entirely separate. The former being on rising ground, sloping towards the hills, which are ever green (for several months in the year.) That the hills are covered with wild flowers, well supplied with little rills of water and babbling brooks for irrigation and drinking purposes. Tell them that the slope is similar to seats in a theatre, so that one man cannot cut off another's view. Women's hats do it in a place of amusement though.

Continue the story and say that there is a plenty of level land, through which the steam cars pass, that manufactories of all kinds can be built upon and the articles manufactured, as well as raw material, can be transported at the cheapest kind of rates (after the new railroad is built). And don't forget, as a sort of climax, to relate the most fascinating land and sea views which can be had at a moment's notice. This climax ought to bring a person with magnetic force. Still, should you think anything more should be added remind your friend of our great University, as well as our public schools where learning can be obtained that will surprise the world in endeavoring to get loose.

There could be a vast amount more written of laudatory matter. If the above, given in such colors as may be wanted for the situation, does not have any effect then the subject would be no good acquisition to the highly moral town of Berkeley.

BATHING HOUSES.

We have heard nothing of late from the parties who proposed to erect some bath houses upon the fine sea beach which is native to Berkeley. There is a long stretch of it bounded on the east by the west end of town. Sufficiently good houses for bathing purposes could be erected at a comparatively small expense which would attract people during the summer months, particularly when the town is largely visited from the surrounding cities.

We do not call to mind just now of an enterprise which would pay better than a venture of this kind. Water direct from the sea can always be had, pure and sparkling as that in the mountain brooks. Salt water baths are strongly recommended by the whole medical faculty for good health.

A place of this kind would receive the patronage of men, women and children, old and young, sick and well. We want to see somebody get rich and at the same time be a benefactor to the human race. Any capitalist desiring to invest his gold where it will be safe and give him constant employment in cutting off his interest coupons, will find this to be an opportunity well worth considering and then investing.
